“FROM STRANGERS TO NEIGHBOURS: CHRISTIAN HOSPITALITY IN A CHANGING ASYLUM LANDSCAPE”

Drawing on Theos's recent report *From Strangers to Neighbours:
The Church and the Integration of Refugees*,

George Lapshynov

explores how UK churches are quietly but powerfully helping asylum seekers become neighbours. The talk sets recent shifts in asylum policy alongside Christ's call to welcome the stranger. And through stories from congregations across the country, it highlights both the pressures churches face and the practices that work, inviting Christian communities to embody hopeful, relational integration in an increasingly precarious asylum system.
